Daylight Saving Time is This weekend

Daylight Savings Time

When does Daylight Savings Time 2015 Start? Week no. 11, Sunday, 8th March at 2:00am (Spring forward one hour)

When does Daylight Savings Time 2015 End? - Week no. 45, Sunday, 1st November at 2:00am (Fall back one hour)

Daylight Saving Time Quick Facts

- The idea of DST was first introduced in 1784 by Benjamin Franklin.
- In 1916, Germany and its allies were the first countries to use DST.
- Out of 196 countries in the world only 70 countries observe DST.
- Arizona (except some areas) and Hawaii, and, American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico and, Virgin Islands are the only States and Territories of United States that don't observe DST, respectively.

The Flagler County's Relay for Life (American Cancer Society) starts at 12pm on Saturday, April 25, 2015 and ends at 12am Sunday, April 26, 2015 at the Palm Coast Town Center. This year each team can sell the Luminaria bags for $5. Each bag can be designed with a name in memory, in honor of or to support a loved one. The bag is then lit next to the track the evening of the event. If you would like to purchase a bag, please see Chuck Johnson with Safety.

Rock-A-Bowl - Jesse Shembeda

EAC would like thank all our coworkers and their families who came out to our annual Rock-A-Bowl on Saturday night. We had a great time down at Ormond lanes with a lot of great bowlers. You guys and girls have a great talent, that I will never understand, hats off to you! I'm glad to see that we can put on these events so you can show off your skills, have some friendly competition and make new friends. EAC has a lot more events this year and I'm hoping we have good turnouts for those as well. Coming up next is flag football on March 28th, Corn Hole on April 18th, Fishing Tournament on May 16th and Softball on June 13th. EAC had to cancel a lot of EAC events that were scheduled for late in 2014 due to production schedules. EAC is glad to see you are all still interested in the activities Sea Ray is hosting. We hope to see you all a little more at the upcoming events. Until then, stay safe and keep working hard.

Dealer Service School - Tricia Giordano

On Monday, March 9th our facility will be hosting "Dealer Service School" from 1pm-4:30pm. What is Dealer Service School you ask? It is when our Corporate Office invites our Dealerships to send their representatives to the manufacturing facilities (for a fee of course) to tour the facility and to ask questions about our product. Corporate has advised us we will be expecting between 60-80 representatives. Our guests will be broken down into 6-8 groups depending on how many participants. Upon arrival, we will find out if there are any specific areas they would like to see. Please keep in mind these are Service Representatives, so they may actually ask you a question about what you install. After arrival we will break into groups for tours then meet back up in the Assembly Lunchroom at 3:15pm for a Kenyon Service Class/ Demonstration). On Tuesday they will travel back to Sykes Creek for their Service School.

2015 El Cheapo Sheepshead Tournament - Mark Jones

Kongphet Saysavanh entered this event, and it's the world's largest Sheepshead Tournament with almost 400 boats competing. The prizes are paid out to the top fifteen finishers, with the grand prize being an 18 foot Carolina Skiff powered by a 60hp Mercury engine. Originally Kongphet's fourth place finish in the event was moved up to third when the first place winner was disqualified. The third place prize Kongphet won was a Gheenoe with a 4hp engine. Not bad for a sheepshead weighing in at 9.25 lbs. The other two winners did not beat him by much. 1st place was 9.49 and 2nd place was 9.29 Kongphet mentioned if his fish would have eaten before he caught him he could have possibly had the top prize. This event is held once a year and the first time he entered three years ago there were only about 250 boats. Congratulations Kongphet from all of us here at Sea Ray Meridian.

Did you know that as a Brunswick employee, you are entitled to many perks on top of the great pay and benefits? We also receive numerous discounts to amusement parks, restaurants, tours, attractions, electronics, auto insurance and financing, just to name a few. If you visit the info board that is located in every break room, you will find all the information needed. Under the benefits tab, which displays discounts we get in Orlando, Tampa, New York, Vegas, California and several international destinations. Check out "TICKETS AT WORK" @ 866-273-5825 and use company code "BRUNSWICKCORP" to enjoy all of these discounts.

We also have WWW.YOUDECIDE.COM/BRUNSWICK and once you set up an account using client ID: BRK276, you will have access to discounted electronics, hotels, car rentals, restaurants, clothing, cruises and special monthly offers from various well known companies, like Apple and Sony. Look at the picture to see all categories!

The Blood Drive

The Blood Bank's goal was 26 units. They registered 27 donors, 2 were deferred, 1 was an unsuccessful unit. We ended up with 24 Good Units!

Thanks for everything. Planning the next drive for Wednesday August 19th.

Here is our first 590 pushing out of Assembly in preparation for the Miami Boat Show. Great job to all involved. The picture below shows a few of the employees who had a hand in the build.

2015 - Juy Sihachak

We are already 3 months into 2015 and most of us have already abandoned our new year's resolutions. Year after year I find myself in the same endless cycle of creating goals and then pushing most of them aside. However, this year I was determined to become financially fit. I am determined every year but this year maybe just a pinch more. As a result, 3 months into the new year and I am astonished at the results of saving a few extra bucks here and there. Personally I feel that this has created a snow ball effect and I am on my way to becoming more financially fit then I was in the last resolution season. These are just a few examples of what I did personally to stop the trickling of money from my accounts.

Saving loose change. I am horrible at keeping track of loose change in my pockets. I find myself making use of my debit card more often so that I do not encounter this problem as often.

Keeping track of spending. I am 28 years young so I find myself buying things I want instead of things I need. For instance, restraining myself from buying the latest version of the I-phone when my current one works exactly the same. (Just don't tell that to my girlfriend)

Coffee in the mornings. I try to make coffee at home because last year I remember going to the gas station every morning to buy a cup and a few snacks. Doing the math, this number can start to become ridiculous.

Taking advantage of discounts and incentives. There are many ways to take advantage of discounts through work or other incentives for paying bills annually instead of monthly. I find that paying my car insurance annually saves a good amount of money.

Never purchase an expensive item on impulse. If I want something that is expensive, I now give it a day or two before purchasing the item. As a result, I usually find that I talk myself out of buying it.

Eating at home. Eating out is fun, but eating out can also become really expensive.

- Practicing Mindfulness. Just thinking about and thinking through each situation has helped to save more and more money. I understand that everyone is in a different financial situation of their own. However, practice makes perfect and being mindful of every situation that involves money will help.
